And they're only contacting a lost love because they're working through some things that have nothing to do with romance. For example, that person just happened to be the person around when a parent died. Seeking out a person like that is a comfort. You find that kind of thing with old high school friends all the time — that comfort.

Song 108 —God's Loyal Love | Christian Song

In the first chapter - right smack in the middle of personal tragedy - Ruth introduces us to a kind of loyal love that can be a rare find in human relationships. The Hebrew word for this sacrificial, steadfast, unmerited, lovingkindness is hesed, and it's become for me one of the most precious words in the Bible.
