Based on the Jan van Tonder novel with the same title. It tells the story of a 1966 railway community, told through the eyes of an eleven year old boy, called Timus. Timus and his family are trapped within the structural violence caused by the government and the church at the time.

I found that eventhough it was a translation of the original Roepman it was a compelling read. Still I noted that some of the important aspects of the book that only were apparent in afrikaans were missing. So I would suggest to read the original if it is possible or later watch the movie Roepman, which captures the essence of the book well.
