It's an acronym that depending on the context can stand for 'Shut Up, Move On' or 'Stop, Understand, Move On'. Interestingly, in Latin, SUMO can mean 'Choose' and at the heart of our work, is a desire to help people make wise and better choices – not only in their professional lives, but their personal lives also.

SUMO

It doesn't necessarily mean "get over it" or "pull yourself together" (although there may be occasions when both responses are necessary): "Shut Up" means stop what you're doing, take time out to reflect, let go of baggage and beliefs that hinder your potential; "Move On" means tomorrow can be different from today, look for new possibilities, don't just think about it, take action.
