African music - African music - Musical structure: In Africa it is unrealistic to separate music from dance or from bodily movement. In Europe the body tends to be used as a single block, while in African and African American dance it seems to be "polycentric"—that is, split into several independent body areas or "centres." Likewise, the playing of African musical instruments ...

Antonio Sanchez Independence Latin Jazz Drum Lesson

Jazz drumming is the art of playing percussion (predominantly the drum set, which includes a variety of drums and cymbals) in jazz styles ranging from 1910s-style Dixieland jazz to 1970s-era jazz fusion and 1980s-era Latin jazz. The techniques and instrumentation of this type of performance have evolved over several periods, influenced by jazz at large and the individual drummers within it.
