The Tyranny of the Status Quo, Since McKinsey & Co. published "The War for Talent" more than two decades ago, organizations have run amuck trying to figure out the right recipe for ranking, attracting and retaining the "right" people. Let me be heretical: This is a waste of time. The problem is not getting the "right" people; the problem is that most organizations take incredibly able, smart people and then make them stupid.

Part I. The Tyranny of Tyranny. An article entitled "The Tyranny of Structurelessness" which has received wide attention around the women's movement, (in MS, Second Wave etc) assails the trend towards 'leaderless', 'structureless' groups, as the main — if not sole — organisational form of the movement, as a dead-end. While written and received in good faith, as an aid to the ...
